Senior Survey

Our class loves Friday's, Wendy's, and the Outback Steakhouse.

We've been listening to WBCN 104.1, Jamn 94.5, and Kiss 108.

The Seniors love when the cafeteria dishes out their special Spicy Chicken, Cookies, and, of course, pizza.

Some of the favorite bands of the class of 2005 are Sublime, Radiohead, Kanye West, 311, Dispatch, Incubus, Guster, and, of course, Daler Mendhi.

We've been busy watching some of the great cinema of our generation: Fight Club, Dazed & Confused, Big Lebowski, Miracle, Animal House, Snatch, and Whale Rider.

The Class of 2005 has been chillin' at the beach (The Spit was a favorite), the big city of Boston, driving around in cars, and just taking it easy at friends' houses.

We have been crazy about class this year! Some faves: Astronomy with Emo, Watershed with Mr. Brown, Psychology with Ms. Fox, Latin (especially AP with Sharpe!), and Volleyball with C. Brown.

TV has been fabulous this year! While reality TV is on a downward slope, the super-dramas, like The OC, Desperate Housewives, and One Tree Hill are keeping us talking. Comedy, as always, is popular. Some of our favorites are Family Guy, The Daily Show with Jon Stewart, Chapelle Show, King of Queens, and Aqua Teen Hunger Force.

We've made many memories together these past four years. The girls enjoyed Powderpuff both junior and seniors years. The boys enjoyed a great baseball season in 2004. The future Oscar winners among us enjoyed making some ("bad") movies. As a class, we had fun with the scavenger hunt Junior year in Boston, talent shows, and Proms. We also enjoyed the chilly winter of 2004-2005 where we had some snow days!

Thank god! It is finally over with! It has been a seemingly long four years that will forever be remembered. All the things that have happened between freshman year when our country changed drastically with the occurrence of 9/11 to now and the kind of person I have become. I've learned many valuable things along the way and they have shaped and molded me into a completely different person, considering I started out as a very shy freshman. I wanted to thank all of my friends- Andrea you're my hero- for making high school that much more enjoyable. I also wanted to thank all of my teachers from all years- all of you have taught me something different and they are all valuable tools of life which I will carry with me forever. I should like to thank my parents for their unwavering support and helpful wisdom in all aspects of my life. I now push myself not to be better than my peers, but to truly see what I am capable of, and to have interesting tales to tell at our dinner table of the future. I will be content on the day I have half the generous and jolly support of my father, or half the prodigal and seemingly omnipotent mind of my mother. I want to say thank you to everyone who made me feel so comfortable while being in a new school. Adjustment is said to be difficult, but it came easily through many new friendships. Rachel- thanks for being there since day one, you're truly like a sister to me. There's been so many good times and I hope when all is said and done we look back with a smile. Hot spots, late nights, Friday night football games, It's been an unforgettable journey! Mom, Dad, Lauren- thank you for all the encouragement to do my best, I love you all.

I thank all of my friends M.O.D, Troy, Justin, Amanda, Matt, Christine, Sam, Ryan, Kelly, Teresa, Kayla, can't even list all of my friends. To dad though you can be mean sometimes, without your help these last four years I don't know where I'd be.

These past twelve years have been a journey full of challenges and memories that will last a lifetime. I'll start by thanking teachers from pre school up through high school whom I have had the opportunity to know and listen to everyday of the school year. Thanks for preparing me for college and beyond. Dad and Mom, you have done nothing but encourage me to follow my dreams, follow my own path, reach my own goals, and become the person of my choice. You have strengthened me to perform my best in study and on stage. Your words of encouragement are so sincere and beautiful. Adam, thank you for teaching me how to have patience. You have taught me so many lessons, and I will look forward to more. You rock little bro! School would not be the same without my friends. Thank you for being yourselves and sharing your gifts. You are amazing people in your unique ways. These past twelve years would have been impossible without my support system: my family, my teachers, and my friends. To the crew: Many of us have been together since kindergarten, most of us joined together in the 6th grade and a few have been added along this awesome journey we've had. The memories from sports, dances, classes, weekends, summers, and all the times spent together are ones to last a lifetime. Thank you for the memories. To my girls: I could not ask for anything more than what you all have given me. Through the good times and the bad times we've stuck together. I love all of you, I wish you luck in the future. Count your blessings, seduce a stranger
What's so wrong with being happy?
Kudos to those who see through sickness

She knew that her life had passed her by
She called out a warning,
"Don't ever let life pass you by."

I suggest we learn to love each other before it's made illegal
When will we learn?
When will we change?
Just in time to see it all fall down
